

LOOKING FOR ALASKA

BY: JOHN GREEN

Miles Halter, Pudge, is off to Boarding school at culver creek. He's ready to take the next step in life and leave his parent's and very few friends. Pudge's roommate, The Colonel, does all the things Pudge's parents wanted him to stay away from: smoking, drinking, and getting into trouble. When the colonel introduces Pudge to Alaska, his heart skips a beat. He's instantly drawn to this girl. Throughout the school year the 3 of them do everything together: studying, drinking, playing pranks, etc. Until 'poof,' they're torn apart when Alaska goes missing. Will they be able to find her and be reunited again?

Rated 4 out of 5 stars. It's very enthralling and keeps you wanting to read, but didn't do good enough to deserve a 5.

Recommended for Teenagers